IndiSoft Will Continue Supporting HLP Platform into the Future

HLP to stop providing services at year end

COLUMBIA, MD, Nov. 8, 2019 - In light of HLP's recent industry announcement that it is closing operations by Dec. 31, 2019, IndiSoft LLC, the underlying technology provider for HLP's collaborative platform, is notifying the mortgage banking industry that it will continue to support the platform.

HLP has been a reseller of IndiSoft's patented and HUD Certified RxOffice Case Management System (RX CMS), and IndiSoft is actively working with all stakeholders on a transition plan to ensure uninterrupted service and a smooth cutover on Jan. 1, 2020.

IndiSoft will continue its commitment to the housing advocacy sector, residential mortgage servicing industry, consumers and State Housing Finance Agencies during and beyond this transition period.

Please contact either of the following IndiSoft personnel with any questions or comments.
